

Geoff Lowery and Emily Coledge to lead Redburn Retail & Sporting Goods Research

London, 07 November 2021 – Redburn, the independent and equity research and execution firm, has today announced that Geoff Lowery will be re-joining Redburn in January following a period in fund management.

Geoff previously worked at Redburn for more than 12 years, building a leading franchise in European non-food retail stocks including Next and Inditex, as well as sporting goods companies such as Adidas. Before Redburn Geoff was a Director in equity research at Dresdner Kleinwort.

Emily Coledge has established an outstanding track record since joining Redburn in 2014 covering a range of online and physical retailers ranging from ASOS and Zalando to ABF. Emily will be returning from maternity leave in the spring. Before joining Redburn, Emily worked in Corporate Tax at Deloitte and at Foresight Group within the Institutional Capital team.

Nick Delfas and Steve East, Co-Heads of Research Services at Redburn, commented: “Emily and Geoff make a formidable team which will provide our clients with true thought leadership in the retail and sporting goods arena in Europe, and also increasingly in the United States.

“Their proven ability to analyse, predict and communicate is second to none.”
