

Simon Chisholm to lead Equity Capital Markets at Redburn

Redburn (Europe) Ltd, the leading equity research and execution firm, is delighted to announce the appointment of Simon Chisholm as Head of Equity Capital markets. Following qualification as Chartered Accountant Simon was a fund manager at Henderson before joining Berenberg Bank where he was instrumental in building their investment banking business as Co-Head of the Equities business for 11 years. Following Berenberg he has been running his own advisory business working with listed companies across Europe.

Simon is joining together with Ben Glaeser who will be an Associate Partner in the ECM team. Ben worked alongside Simon at his capital markets advisory firm. He brings with him 13 years of financial markets experience, including several years as a sector research analyst covering capital goods both at Jefferies and, prior to that, Berenberg.

Adam Young, Chairman, and Jeremy Evans, Senior Partner, commented: "We warmly welcome Simon and Ben to the firm. With their help Redburn will be excellently positioned to bring its market intelligence to bear to the benefit of companies and institutional investors."

ENDS

Notes to editors

Media contacts:

Teamspirit

redburn@teamspirit.uk.com

About Redburn

Redburn is built upon a commitment to intellectual freedom, commercial research, best execution and premium client service. Redburn was founded in 2003, and has grown from 14 employees to 200. Redburn provides institutional investors with equity research, quantitative and technical analysis, economics research and agency execution in European and North American equity markets. In addition to research and execution, Redburn Access links investors to Redburn's network of industry executives and independent experts. Redburn has offices in London, Paris, Madrid, New York and Boston. www.redburn.com